

Three Questions

Ezekiel 33:30-33

Ezekiel 33:30-33

- The people say to each other, “Come and hear the message that comes from the Lord.”
- They listen, but do not put into practice.
- They talk of devotion, but their hearts are greedy for unjust gain.
- They love the words and find beauty and desire in them.
- But they do not do them.

A constant warning:

- "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter. (Mat 7:21)
- "For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels." (Mar 8:38)

A constant warning:

- "He who rejects Me and does not receive My sayings, has one who judges him; the word I spoke is what will judge him at the last day. (Joh 12:48)

“The wrong kind of Christian”

- By Tish Harrison Warren, “Christianity Today”, August 2014
- “I thought a winsome faith would win Christians a place at Vanderbilt’s table. I was wrong.”
- “But the university saw belief statements themselves as suspect. Any belief—particularly those about the authority of Scripture or the church—could potentially constrain sexual activity or identity.”

“The wrong kind of Christian”

- The word discrimination began to be used—a lot—specifically in regard to creedal requirements. It was lobbed like a grenade to end all argument. Administrators compared Christian students to 1960s segregationists. I once mustered courage to ask them if they truly thought it was fair to equate racial prejudice with asking Bible study leaders to affirm the Resurrection. The vice chancellor replied, "Creedal discrimination is still discrimination."

“The wrong kind of Christian”

- “The line between good and evil was drawn by two issues: creedal belief and sexual expression. If religious groups required set truths or limited sexual autonomy, they were bad—not just wrong but evil, narrow-minded, and too dangerous to be tolerated on campus.”
- Romans 1:26-27
- Liberal and Conservative

Three Questions:

- From “Think” magazine.
- Does God exist?
- Has He spoken?
- What are you doing about it?
