Listen To Him

Three times the Bible records the words God speaks to Jesus directly from heaven.

The first is at Jesus' baptism.

And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased." (Matt. 3:17 NIV)

God is well pleased with Jesus. He delights in him. All Jesus does is good. Jesus lived a life to be emulated. A life to be followed. Therefore, we are called to be his disciples.

The second is on the mountain where Jesus is transfigured.

While he was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!" (Matthew 7:5 NIV)

On this occasion, God gives us specific instructions with regard to our relationship with Jesus. We are to listen to him. To listen is to heed, to pay attention to. To listen is to obey. To listen is to trust.

We seem to say a great deal about the importance of listening to Jesus. So does the Bible. It doesn't take much awareness to realize how much we all need to be reminded of this one and essential commandment from God.

The third time God spoke to Jesus? John 12:28.

How are you?
Scott Pruitt

As I write that question, my mind is flooded with so many people who will receive this question with a plethora of responses.

How are you? Some of us are overwhelmed with stress from work, school, or relationships. Others have found contentment as they grind through the day to day activities of life. A few are at their breaking point as they care for their loved one battling sickness.

When I was in 5th grade, each Sunday, my bible class teacher wrote all of the students' names on the chalkboard with one question at the top...How are you? He also had 2 other questions. How many days did you pray last week? How often did you read the Bible? I can remember striving to honestly be able to write "7" each week. I don't know why, but I guess I looked at that challenge as a competition to some degree. It wasn't until later when life hit that I dealt with that challenge at a much deeper level.

What part of the Lord's prayer do you struggle to pray for the most? What part do you connect with the most?

"Your Kingdom come, your Will be done."

Do you have the courage, assurance, and invitation to welcome God into every thought, conversation, and activity in your life or do you attempt to control Him?

Today, pray not for things, but for wisdom and courage...to crawl onto His lap and talk to Him honestly and openly, to surrender whatever you are trying to control and seek His help, to love deeply and serve wholeheartedly.

Preparing for the Eternal

2 Corinthians 4:16-18 So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

Why are you discouraged? Why do you loose heart? We all have stages in our lives when we get discouraged. A lot of things happen in this world that discourage us. Sometimes we feel like we just need to give up. DON'T! If you are feeling exhausted and tired of your Christian life and your Christian walk, don't give up! Paul tells the church in Corinth to not loose heart. Imagine all the evil they were surrounded by and all the decay of their world around them. It was extremely hard to be a Christian then, even more so than today. But the encouragement was to not lose heart, which means, don't give up! Don't stop believing you can succeed!

The moment we stop having hope and believe that there is no success to be had, we give up. Sometimes an illness, life events even church work can discourage us. Never stop believing in God. God's plan for your life is for eternity, not for the temporary things of this world. Trust him and obey him. It's okay if our body is wasting away because our soul has set it's eyes on heaven. No matter what happens here in this world, we belong to Christ, don't lose heart brothers and sisters.
